Nedbank Lesotho code of conduct

We are committed to the highest ethical standards in conducting our business. These ethical standards reflect our belief that business should be conducted with integrity and respect for, and by, all our stakeholders including staff, business partners, directors, and all our clients. In delivering on this corporate credo, we welcome receipt of comments, complaints, and compliments across different communications touchpoints as outlined below:

Complaints procedure guide

First engagement

Calls to our Toll-Free Greenline customer care lines: +266 80022072 (ETL subscribers) and +266 80055777 (VCL subscribers).

(Monday to Friday 08:00 - 17:00
Saturday 08:00 to 11:00)

Physical reporting through our branch network. This can be lodged with our Enquiries desk or a consultant in the bank.

Email to Greenline@nedbank.co.ls

Digitally through the feedback tool on our website www.nedbank.co.ls

On the Nedbank Money (Africa) app.

Through direct messages on our official social media pages (Facebook, X and LinkedIn)

Second engagement

Where resolution is not met, the aggrieved stakeholder can request to be put in contact with a senior member of staff to escalate their complaint to management. The complaint will have been recorded and a reference code issued to client for tracking, resolution, and reporting purposes.

Third engagement

In the unlikely event that a complaint is not resolved, or not resolved to the satisfaction of the affected stakeholder, the matter can be escalated to the Financial Consumer Protection Division at the Central Bank of Lesotho with the reference code issued by Nedbank.
